Introducing our new SEND self-evaluation platform

In partnership with EvaluateMySchool

We are delighted to share the news that all schools within Oxfordshire will soon have access to our new SEND self-evaluation platform.

Written in collaboration with national experts, the SEND evaluation asks best practice questions, providing you with the information you need to make informed strategic decisions for your school.

✓ Improve

How will this help my school?

- The platform supports schools to identify strengths and areas for development
- Evaluates against best practice statements which are quality assured by national experts
- Enables staff to collaborate in one place
- Provides a simple and efficient platform for evidencing impact
- Collates and aggregates data instantly across groups of schools
- Can be used to generate an action plan for development areas
- Provides a foundation for supporting school to school collaboration
- Helps SENDCOs and senior leaders reduce workload through the use of technology

Look out for more information coming soon about how you can access this new resource from the Oxfordshire SEND team.
