

Food, Farming and Nature-based Education CPD

An afternoon at Little Rollright Farm discussing how we can incorporate more food, farming and nature-based education into our school curriculum.

Join Little Rollright Farm, Local Council Officers and The Harmony Project for a free afternoon of CPD outdoors in nature. We'll explore how farm-based learning and nature-rich education can strengthen curriculum, wellbeing and whole-school culture, while supporting children's understanding of healthy food and healthy diets. Come for practical examples, shared learning, and clear next steps for your school.

Event details

Date: Tuesday 7 July 2026

Time: 2.30pm - 5.30pm

Location: Little Rollright Farm (near Chipping Norton)

Cost: Free to attend - booking essential

Audience: Headteachers, executive heads, deputy/ assistant heads, senior leaders, sustainability and science leads across local primary schools. As well as, governors leading on Well Schools or Sustainability Action Plan.

Book now by clicking here.

What to expect

- Introductions from Little Rollright Farm, The Harmony Project and Local Council Officers
- Insights into the new National Curriculum, OFSTED Framework, government guidance and local support around food, farming and nature education
- Interactive farm walk
- Workshop: Bringing nature into the curriculum with Richard Dunne, Director of The Harmony Project
- Free science resource pack around 'What is the story of our food?'
- Closing reflections and next steps

Why attend

- Strengthen your approach to nature-rich learning across the curriculum
- Support whole-school improvement through outdoor and farm-based education
- Develop children's understanding of sustainable food & farming systems and healthy diets
- Explore local provision and partnership opportunities for schools
- Share learning and best practice with other senior leaders across Oxfordshire

Book now by clicking here.